

Write a letter to a family member recounting your week at home/in school – don't forget to use capital letters for the days of the week! On Monday we.... On Tuesday.... 	Write a description of a well-known story character, e.g. The Gruffalo, The Troll in Three Billy Goats Gruff, The Big Bad Wolf. This could be a labelled diagram or a short-written description. What questions would you like to ask your character? 	Go on a short walk in your local area with your grown up. Record any key landmarks, e.g. post box, church, roundabout, bus stop etc. Draw a map of the route you took and label the places you pass.
Create a wanted poster for a well-known fairy tale character, e.g. Goldilocks, The wolf in Little Red Riding Hood. What questions would you like to ask them? 	Design and make a habitat/home for a minibeast or insect. Add labels or captions to your design/model. 	Use junk modelling to create an object or attraction of your choice, e.g. a fairground/theme park, skate park, pirate ship, a trap to catch Goldilocks, a castle. Use post-it notes to label the key features of your design.
Write a seed diary. Plant cress or sunflower seeds or beans. Record how the plant changes over time. 	Write a list of ingredients needed for a recipe (real or imaginary – your favourite dessert, slime or mud pies) 	Read a well-known story (a nursery rhyme or traditional tale) retell the story to a friend or grown up. Create a story map of the key events that take place – sequence and label them with simple words or captions.
Write the thought or speech bubbles for key characters in a story of your choice. You could use post-it notes. What are they thinking and feeling at different points in the story? 	Write a 'Who Am I?' riddle about an animal or object of your choice. Try to include fact statements about your animal, e.g. I am very tall I have a long neck I like to eat leaves Who Am I? I have two horns. I have a tail. Who am I? Who am I? I have some spots. I have a long neck. Who am I? Who am I? 	Write a fact file about your favourite place, toy, animal, activity, story character. Present the information as a poster. 